

Important Information & FAQ's

- The Bella Schlow Society is a list of those people who have named Schlow Library Foundation as a beneficiary of any type of planned, estate, or deferred gift. Donors may choose to join the Society and be anonymous.
- The purpose of this published list is to encourage others in the community to also join and support the future of the Schlow Library.
- Membership is elective and self-reported. Those who make private estate plans are asked to share their name with Schlow Library Foundation, but gift amounts and other details can remain private.
- There is no minimum amount required in the planned gift to join The Bella Schlow Society.
- Gifts will be directed toward the greatest need at Schlow Library at the time the gift is received. This might include supporting the book collection and educational programs at the library, other operational expenses of the library, capital improvement projects within the library, or be added to the Schlow Library Foundation endowments to support the future of the library.
- When setting up a planned gift with your financial advisor or legal advisor, please be sure to include Schlow Library Foundation, c/o Schlow Centre Region Library. Proper use of the legal name is important to be sure that your wishes are followed and the bequest does reach the library.
- Donors who leave a gift to the Centre Foundation to benefit Schlow Library will also be considered a member of The Bella Schlow Society.

- Names of those who belong to The Bella Schlow Society may be used in promotion at the library and in publications, as well as on the website and in print materials. Thank you for letting us celebrate your gift now and encourage others to make a similarly impactful gift.
