

WINTER

Presenting in collaboration with the Bracken Lecture Series:

"Braiding Sweetgrass": A Virtual Visit With Robin Wall Kimmerer

Named a "Best Essay Collection of the Decade"
by Literary Hub

A Book Riot "Favorite Summer Read of 2020"

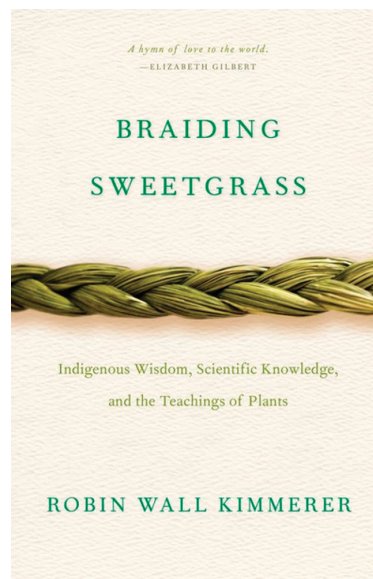

Wednesday, March 2, 6pm

PSU ZOOM

Join Schlow and our partners for a Bracken Lecture Series event and the culmination of the annual "one book, one community" read. The 2022 Centre County Reads selection is Braiding

Sweetgrass: Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge and the Teachings of Plants by Robin Wall Kimmerer. Drawing on her life as an indigenous scientist, and as a woman, Kimmerer shows how other living beings offer us gifts and lessons, even if we've forgotten how to hear their voices. In reflections that range from the creation of Turtle Island to the forces that threaten its flourishing today, she circles toward a central argument: that the awakening of ecological consciousness requires the acknowledgment and celebration of our reciprocal relationship with the rest of the living world.

This Bracken Lecture Series event is a partnership between the Department of Landscape Architecture in Penn State's College of Arts and Architecture, the Arboretum at Penn State, the Penn State Sustainability Institute, and Centre County Reads.

Book sales through our friends at Webster's Bookstore & Café.

Crafts 2 Go: Window Star

Add some color to your day and create a window star. Relaxing and beautiful, these suncatchers are a light in winter. Bags will include kite paper and instructions; you'll need a glue stick.

Call Adult Services at (814) 237-6236 to register to pick up your Crafts to Go! bag at the second floor Reference Desk.

Please share photos of your window star with us on social media @schlowlibrary on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.

- Registration opens Tuesday, February 1.
- Limit 11.

Hear Me Out: Accessibility

Wednesday, February 2, 5:30pm-7:30pm

FREE LIBRARY OF PHILADELPHIA ZOOM

2020 marked the 30th anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). While much has changed in 30 years, people with disabilities are still the third largest underrepresented minority group. The goal of this session is to center lived experiences with disability, accessibility considerations for virtual and in-person spaces, and current challenges and hopes for a more accessible world.

Hear Me Out is a monthly civic dialogue series that aims to build connections with PA library patrons across distance and difference. It is presented in collaboration with public libraries across the commonwealth.

Registration required.

Hear Me Out is made possible by a generous grant from the Horace W. Goldsmith Foundation.

SCORE of Central PA presents: Money from Home, Considerations for Home-Based Businesses

Thursday, March 17, 5:30pm-6:45pm

DOWNSBROUGH COMMUNITY ROOM

Technology has provided an opportunity for more and more people to open home-based businesses that allow more flexibility. While these businesses often provide a way to "work for yourself," they come with many considerations, and sometimes pitfalls. This seminar is designed to point out the considerations that must be made in starting and operating a home-based business selling goods and services online. From regulations, to tax considerations, to finance, marketing and operations, home-based businesses have most, if not all of the issues of any other business.

Women in Jazz with Flute Juice's Galen Abdur-Razzaq

Thursday, April 14, 7pm-8:30pm

SCHLOW ZOOM ROOM

Visit virtually with Galen Abdur-Razzaq, a riveting speaker with an encyclopedic knowledge of the history of jazz. Galen will help us gain a deeper appreciation for women's contributions to this music genre through a combination of lecture and musical pieces performed by Galen as he displays his talents on the flute. Registration is required.

Research Unplugged Returns to Schlow!

Thursdays, April 7, 14, 21, 1:15pm-2:15 PM

DOWNSBROUGH COMMUNITY ROOM
(APRIL 21 AT THE PASTO AG. MUSEUM)

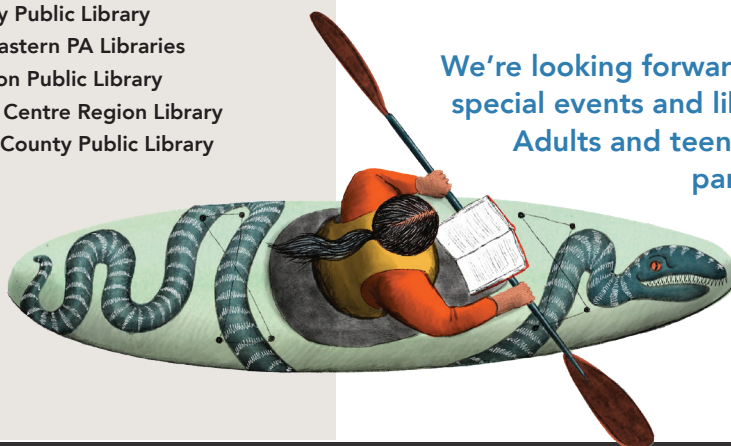

Research Unplugged is a long-running educational community partnership that highlights innovations in university research and is aligned with Schlow's mission of providing Centre Region residents access to unique and engaging programming. Funding for the series is provided, in part, by the Schlow Library Foundation. It is presented in collaboration with the Penn State Office of Government and Community Relations and the Pasto Agriculture Museum.

Don't miss this civic dialogue series that aims to build connections with PA library patrons across distance and difference. Hear Me Out covers topics that affect all of our lives. From artificial intelligence and cryptocurrency, to the state of work and the environment, this program leaves room for all voices and ideas. Join us virtually, on the first Wednesday of the month, to hear from experts and exchange thoughts with our neighbors.
